CHILD DISFIGURED FOR THREE MONTHS

Pimples Spread All Over Face. Itching and Burning Intense. Could Not Sleep. One Cake Cuticura Soap and One Box Cuticura Ointment Healed Her.

Water St., Morville, N. Y.—"When my little daughter was three years old I noticed a hard dry scale on her forehead. Her face broke out in pimples. It spread all over her face, disfiguring her for three months. It caused the skin to crack open and bleed. I had to hold her hands or she would scratch her face till it would bleed, the itching and burning were so intense. It would not heal and she could not sleep.

"She was under treatment for a year but to child's help her. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and she found relief right away. It took one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment to heal her." (Signed) Mrs. E. L. Adams, June 15, 1914.

SELF-SPANKING REVOLT STIRS ORPHANS' HOME; TEACHERS ON STRIKE

Demand Removal of Matron Who Ordered Inmates to Chastise Each Other.

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 18.—How it feels to be self-spanked and whether it is more painful or more degrading than the old-fashioned form of punishment will be told by some of the 150 inmates of the Orphan House of the Holy Saviour, an Episcopal home, the management of which is being investigated by an inspector of the State Board of Charities.

This investigation followed a strike of the eleven teachers in the home, who protest against the continuance in office of Miss Victoria Lamoine, the matron. One of the charges is that she compels children to spank each other and that this is immoral and degrading.

All the charges against Miss Lamoine were made by Samuel L. Warren, a retired banker, until recently a member of the Board of Trustees of the Home. The matron, answering the charges, said: "Self-spanking was begun about two years ago, when a teacher came into my office with seven boys. I was busy and suggested that it would be suitable for the boys to punish each other and they did. Mr. Warren approved the method at the time. Among some of the self-spankers who will be questioned by the State board's agent will be runaways, twenty-six of whom took French leave Sunday and three Tuesday. Three were girls. All the boys and girls have been rounded up.

SAYS SCHOOL MILITARISM IS 'ORGANIZED INSANITY'

Western Educator Denounces System as Leading to "Spying, Lying and Forging."

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 18.—N. C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Schools of Pennsylvania, in an address here before the Superintendents of the National Education Association, said the introduction of militarism into the public schools of the United States would be "organized insanity."

"The public schools would develop a race of Amazons, more fierce than the militant Suffragettes," he continued. "Investigation has shown that the military drill is injurious during the adolescent period and that the gracefulness of the cadets is due more to the dancing master than the drill."

"The moral danger that results from militarism is still greater. It does not develop the sense of duty, but justifies spying, lying, forging letters and telegrams and giving false signals to mislead the enemy."

POLICEMAN USES PISTOL AND CAPTURES FUGITIVE

Not Even an "Innocent Bystander" Hit When Her Revolver Roars.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Bullets zipped in the Loop and men, women and girls flattened themselves behind "L" posts and scurried into doorways yesterday when a policeman with a roaring revolver pursued and captured one of three fleeing men near Jackson Boulevard and Fifth Avenue. Florence Van Amber is the "copette," who convinced Arthur Cocchi that she is an expert at handling a revolver.

With two companions the man had been loitering around the La Salle Street Station, where the policeman is detailed, and after, according to her story, she had seen the trio account several incoming passengers she approached them.

The men broke into a run and the "copette," with her blazing revolver, pursued. The other men escaped.

Old Sea Captain Cured His Own Rupture After Doctors Said "Operate or Die."

His Remedy and Book Sent Free. Captain Collings called the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years. He tried doctor after doctor and trust after trust. No result! Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abortive operation or die. He did neither. He cured himself instead.

"Follow Men and Women, You Don't Have To Be Cut Up, and You Don't Have To Be Tortured By Trusses."

Captain Collings made a study of himself, of his condition—and at last he was rewarded by the finding of the method that so quickly made him a well, strong, vigorous and happy man. Anyone can use the same method! It's simple, easy, safe and inexpensive.
